

Marking

A 30 year old man presents with pain to his elbow after a fall on an outstretched hand. Perform an appropriate clinical examination

Washed hands
Introduces self
Checks patient identity
Offer analgesia
Obtains verbal consent for interview
Offers chaperone
Exposes patient
Inspection – shoulder/upper arm/elbow/forearm/ Erythaema/scars/wasting/deformity
Enquires about area of tenderness
Palpation
Range of movement (active)
Range of movement (passive)
Offers to examine joint above and below
Additional tests- resisted movement for flexors and extensors
Offer to test for cubital tunnel syndrome (elbow flexed to 90 degrees, wrist in full extension – hold position for 3 mins to see if can elicit paraesthesia/numbness in distal ulnar distribution)
Test for sensation in nerve territories (ulnar/median/radial)
Checks distal NV status
Offer to assist dressing patient
Comments on appropriate Mx
Correctly summarises
Asks if any questions
Thanks patient
Patient mark	